Memorial Day Weekend

Memorial Day weekend, we had a great turn out for placing of the American Flags on Veteran's interment sites at Sylvan Abby Cemetery. The volunteers came from Post7, Suncoast Rider, VFW, Joe's off the Beach Bar, Niagara Tap, Sylvan Abby and others. In total we had over 50 volunteers show up on Saturday. Sylvan Abby Maintenance Crew picked up the Flags on Tuesday and will store them at their facility.

Post 7 Commander Bob Farrell

Tom Vitelli, left, Anthony Cox, Right

I want to thank all the Volunteers and a special thanks goes to Joe Stable and Tracy Vitelli for getting volunteers and coordinating the event with Sylvan Abby. Tom Vitelli
1st Vice Commander

S.A.L. Corner

Friends and Family

I'm hopeful that this issue finds everyone well and healthy. We are in the very beginning stages of opening and trying to get Life back to normal. We have been isolated for several months, and it will take some time to get ourselves back to some semblance of normal. be patient, and above all, please be cautious.

Membership is over 100%, and the S.A.L. Rifle Raffle is still selling tickets. Nominations and elections were held. Anthony Cox is incoming Commander, 1st Vice is open, 2nd Vice is Larry Bell, Chaplain is Randy Collingsworth, and Tom Klinger will continue as Finance Officer.

To my understanding, there will be no Installation Ceremony this year, so all officers assume their posts on July 1. Give them the support they need to do their jobs properly.

For God, Country, and Community
